OBITUARY.

Departed this life, on the 30th ult., at Clifton, (Charles county, Md.,) Mr. JOHN J. WATSON, in the 37th year of his age. The subject of this tribute was most truly an excellent specimen of modest and unabtrusive virtue and worth. His mental culture and qualifications were such as to compel the respect of all who knew him well; and his uniform urbanity, benevolence, and gentleness of spirit and life-served to treasure up for him golden harvests of kindly reciprocity and friendship on earth-as also, to add point and poignancy to the regret that his mortal career been so early terminated. But, "the Lord reigneth"- and "He hath done all things well "-Death is but His messenger and servant-and only can obey the mandate of his infinite wisdom and goodness. It is but just to add that friend and brother-however attractive and useful in their way-were, so to speak, cast into the shade by the far more prominent and desirable, useful and luminous attributes, traits and accomplishments of the Christian faith, and life. Several years ago, he "believed on Him with the heart unto righteousness-and he made confession (of Christ) with his mouth unto salvation. From that important epoch of his life to the close of it, his conversation was that of the humble, consistent, sincere, and intelligent Christian. His last days and hours of mortal weakness and sickness and weariness, were suffered in serene resignation to the Divine Master's will-and, by His grace, they were full of he most lamb-like submission to Christ and of spintual tranquility, devotion and peace. Thus was he most evidently and completely ransomed and delivered from the dread and sting of death, and from the fear of "the victory" of the cold and silent grave. Gentle reader and mourning friend, does not this affecting providence speak to thy ear and heart—saying "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not, the son of man cometh" From it, moreover, we may learn how true it is, that "in the midst of life we are in death"-and that our mortal existence here, is at best, but "a vapor, that appeareth for a little while and then vanisheth away "So teach us (O Lord !) to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.'

DIED, in Germantown, Fairfax county, Va on the 6th inst , CORA, second daughter of W. Francis and Margaret Harrison, aged two years, seven months, and twenty-seven days.

DIED, at Shelby, Westmoreland county, Va., on the 9th instant, SALLIE PITTS, aged eleven months and twenty-five days, daughter of Chas. C. and Annie E. Baker.

To think the cold grave now must close On what was once the chief Of all our treasured joys of earth-This is a parent's grief!

Yet, when the first wild throb is past, Of anguish and despair, To lift the eye of faith to heaven, And think our child is thee!

This 'least can dry the gushing tear, This yield the heart relief. Until the Christian's pious hope, O'ercomes a parent's grief.

1)OTOMAC LAND FOR SALE.—The undersigned desires to sell a TRACT OF LAND, on the Waters of Potomac Creek, in Stafford County, Va., containing TEN HUN-DRED AND TWENTY ACRES. It borders on the Creek (which is navigable) 21 miles, and is distant about one mile from the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad. The soil is very productive in all the usual grain crops, but particularly adapted to the growth of Tobacco and Grass, though it is of uneven sur-There is on the land inexhaustible beds of the finest shell Marl. A large quantity of Hickory, Oak and Pine Wood may be cut from the land, worth on the shore of the creek from two to four dollars per cord. Also, a good deal of Cedar and Locust, Yellow Popular and White Oak

There is a meadow now yielding an average of $500 worth of Hay per annum, containing fourteen Acres of land, which may be increased to fifty acres of prime Meadow. Grass grows well all over the Land, which renders it valuable for grazing purposes. Indeed, it grazes an-nually, about fifty head of cattle in the woods, Altogether it is a very valuable tract, but I am disposed to sell it below its value, as I own another large farm adjoining it, and have not a sufficient force to manage both. I invite persons disposed to purchase such property to examine it, or communicate with me by letter at
